Currently there are no matching options. Please try again or browse the restaurants below.

- vi. Please place the above message, in the exact position as shown below. Beneath the message, all restaurants for the user's selected city will be listed e.g. Sydney.
- vii. If the user ticks options on boxes on the left side of the page, such as location, cuisine etc, and no matching options are found - the above message will also appear, and be positioned like below.

The screenshot displays a restaurant booking interface. On the left, there is a sidebar with a 'BOOK NOW' button at the top. Below it, there are input fields for 'NO. OF PEOPLE' (set to 2), 'ON THIS DATE' (with a calendar icon), and 'AT THIS TIME' (set to 06:30 PM). A 'CONTINUE BOOKING' button is at the bottom of this section. Below the sidebar, there is a 'LOCATION' filter section with checkboxes for 'All', 'East', 'South', 'North', and 'West'. The main content area on the right shows 'SHOWING 5 OUT OF 5 RESULTS' with a '[MOST POPULAR] [A - Z]' sorting option. A message states: 'Currently there are no matching options. Please try again, or browse the restaurants below.' Below this message, three restaurant listings are visible: 'J-TEN' (Japanese, CBD), 'SUGAROOM' (Modern Australian, Pyrmont), and 'HANNIBALS RESTAURANT'. Each listing includes a photo, a star rating, a 'RATE THIS RESTAURANT' link, location and cuisine details, and a 'Find a table >>' link.

Currently search function does not work correctly.

- Please ensure it works correctly and filters the restaurants to the user's search preferences/criteria.
  - Currently when user ticks 'All'. Not all restaurants are listed.
  - When user ticks options on the left e.g. 'East', the East restaurants are not listed.
  - A user should be able to tick and untick boxes, to search multiple times and have the restaurants list and unlist on the page according to their ticked preferences (without having to refresh the page). For example, A user ticks 'East', all East restaurants are listed. A user unticks 'East' and ticks 'North'. East restaurant listings are removed, and North restaurant listings appear.
  - There are 3 search methods, please ensure they all work.
    1. Book Now Box (top left hand column)
    2. Tick Boxes (bottom left hand column)
    3. Available Today (on the home page)
      - Please limit the number of restaurants listed here to 4 .
      - See All Available Today (Bottom left hand link)
        - Clicking on this link will take the user to the "6.1 Search page". The search page will list all restaurants that are available on today's date. Please ensure this search function works.
